

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The American Cancer Society is the nationwide community-based volunteer health organization dedicated to eliminating cancer as a major health problem by preventing cancer, saving lives, and diminishing suffering from cancer, through research, education, advocacy, and service and it relies on the commitment and dedication of its volunteers to succeed in the effort to eliminate the burden of cancer in our state and nation; and,

Whereas, Cindy Moser of Pollock, South Dakota, has served as a volunteer for the American Cancer Society for 22 years and has led cancer prevention and awareness efforts in Campbell County, including organizing Love Lights a Tree, Daffodil Days, Relay For Life, the annual crusade, and Sunscreen for Students events; and,

Whereas, Cindy has held numerous offices with the American Cancer Society's volunteer leadership structure, including serving on the South Dakota Advisory Council and American Cancer Society, Midwest Division Board of Directors; and,

Whereas, Cindy is a tireless spokesperson and advocate for the health of rural communities through her efforts to provide information, education, programs, and services to the citizens of Campbell County to reduce the burden of cancer; and,

Whereas, Cindy was recently awarded the St. George National Award, the highest award given for volunteer service by the American Cancer Society, recognizing an outstanding community volunteer in recognition of distinguished volunteer who has made a significant impact on the mission to eliminate cancer as a major health problem; and,

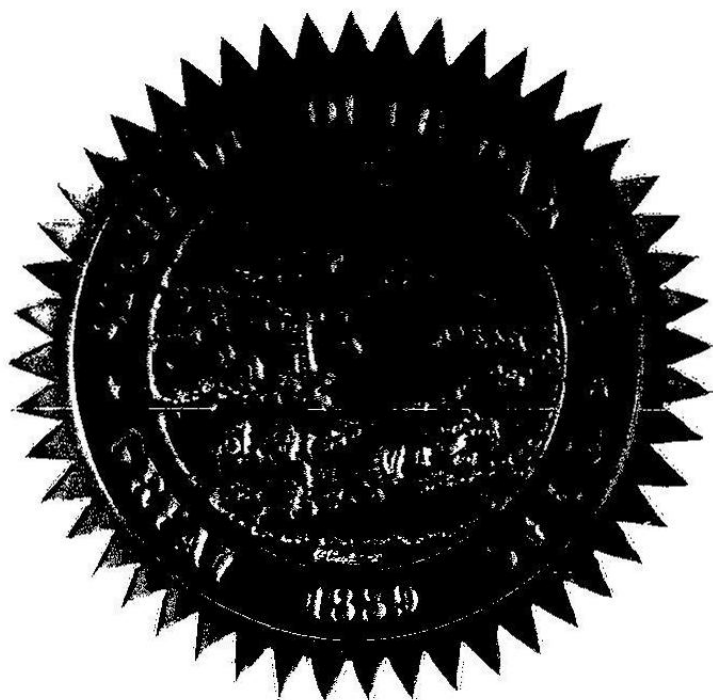

Whereas, Cindy is the embodiment of volunteerism which makes South Dakota a better place to live, grow, and raise a family; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to recognize and honor Cindy as an outstanding citizen for her dedication and service to her community, as well as to the state of South Dakota:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 17, 2007, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
